

Boston, April 20, 1888

Dear Mr. Hazard:

In the ~~last~~ number of the Banner you will find (in the Message Department) a word from your ~~dearly~~ ~~dear~~ ~~brother~~ brother, Thomas. He being himself unable to control Miss Shelhamer, Father Pierpont spoke for him. Also you will find matter referring to his earthly labors on our fourth page, with your note appended.

What became of the $600.00 he put up as bail-money to keep the medium Gordon out of jail? The last time I had a talk with Mr. H. upon the subject, he said he had not got back a cent of that amount. I think you had better see about it. I suppose the money is in the hands of the court. I get impressed to say that he wants you to look it up, but I may be mistaken.

Yours truly

L. Colby