Rhode Island College Institutional Repository
Deposit and Access Agreement Form

The following is an agreement between Rhode Island College Adams Library ("Adams Library") and the content creator ("Contributor"). The Contributor hereby grants Adams Library a non-exclusive license and permission to maintain and share copies of their original work(s) ("Work") in the campus institutional repository, RIC Digital Collections ("Repository"), under the following terms and conditions:

COPYRIGHT:
This agreement does not represent a transfer of copyright in the Work from Contributor to Adams Library; Contributor retains all copyright. It grants Adams Library a non-exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free license to use the Work as described in this agreement.

The Contributor represents and warrants to Adams Library that the Work is their original creation or they are authorized by the copyright holder(s) to submit the Work to the Repository. The Contributor represents that the Work does not, to the best of their knowledge, infringe upon or violate any rights of others.

Furthermore, the Contributor represents and warrants that they have obtained all necessary rights to permit Adams Library to reproduce and distribute the Work, and that any third-party owned content is clearly identified and acknowledged within the Work.

ACCESS AND USE:
My Work will be maintained in an open-access digital environment through Rhode Island College Digital Collections. The Work is intended solely for educational purposes. Signing this document does not endorse or authorize the commercial use of my work in the Repository or by any other individual or organization. Since materials in the Repository are freely accessible to anyone with internet access, I do not hold Rhode Island College responsible for third-party use of my Work. I understand that Rhode Island College may keep more than one copy of my Work for preservation purposes.

WITHDRAWING WORKS:
The Contributor may request in writing the removal of any individual work they contributed to the Repository, for any reason. However, the decision to remove the Work is at Adams Library's discretion. Such removal will not change any other terms of this agreement. If Adams Library is required to remove the work for any reason, it will try to notify the Contributor.

FERPA WAIVER:
Students submitting to the Repository agree to waive any privacy rights granted by FERPA or other laws, policies, or regulations to make their work available through the Repository.

HIPAA WAIVER:
The Contributor certifies that the contents of this material comply with the Privacy Act of 1974 and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) of 1996, and that Adams Library is not liable for documents that violate these laws.

Please select the following levels of access and embargo information below:
